The Johannine Concept Of Truth

The Johannine Concept Of Truth And Its Implications For A concept of truth is not—like the Greek—contemplative-theoretical, but operative-practical. It is a truth which is not merely to be sought and found, but to be pursued, made true, verified and tested in truthfulness. A truth which aims at practice, which calls to the way, which bestows and makes possible a new life.⁷ Revelation and Truth in Johannine Theology
