We Band Of Angels: The Untold Story of American Nurses Trapped on Bataan by the Japanese (1999) by New York University professor Elizabeth M. Norman follows a group of nurses who continued caring for the sick while under great duress from the "Bataan Death March" and WWII. In interviews, Norman said she was inspired to research and tell this story because the role of these female nurses was downplayed when they came back from the war and even in contemporary literature.
