A Mapmakers Dream The Meditations

A Mapmaker's Dream does not live up to its premise. On the surface, the concept of a monk mapping the world via tales and proceeding to include more types of knowledge within it than is traditionally expected sounds like something from the pages of Borges or Calvino.

The Mapmaker's Dilemma - World Maps Online

I've recently discovered the book A Mapmaker's Dream by James Cowan. The subtitle is "The Meditations of Fra Mauro, Cartographer to the Court of Venice." Though the front cover declares the work to be a novel, the introduction claims, very believably, that the book is a translation of a journal written by a sixteenth century monk in Venice.
