In my years as an herbalist, I've often observed that nature will provide subtle cures to the most vexing of problems. I've read that hedge mages and witch doctors often use the smoke of an herb known as witchbane to draw evil from its hiding places. If true, this would mean witchbane should be growing near the shallow waters of Witch Hill.

Witch's Bane is the second book in the Soul Eater series and is a great follow up to the fist book, Hidden Blade. It has a lot of twists, turns and is full of heart pounding action that you always get with Pippa's books. The one thing that I disliked is the weird lust thing Ace has for Isis.

Witches' Bane (Soul Eater, #2) by Pippa DaCosta

Hidden Blade, book 1 in this series, was a brilliant read, but what makes Witches' Bane even better is the amazing work Pippa DaCosta did on the cast of characters. Ace is one of the coolest anti-heros/messed-up male leads ever, the Egyptian gods are gloriously wicked, Ace's sidekicks are nothing short of awesome...I love them all!
